

100 YEARS OF STRUGGLE

International Women's Conference

March 6 – 7, 2010

To mark the centenary of International Women's Day

Venue: Borups Højskole, Copenhagen

The conference is organized by the Women's Committee of the Red-Green Alliance in cooperation with EL-FEM, the women's network of the European Left.

More information:

www.enhedslisten.dk and www.8marts2010.dk

PROGRAMME

- Johanne Schmidt-Nielsen (MP, The Red-Green Alliance, Denmark):
Welcome speech
 - Christiane Reymann (Die Linke, Tyskland, og EL-fem):
Introductory speech: Women's rights: the vote, maternity/parental leave, women's right to choose – equal pay, equal opportunities and equal rights – the importance of the welfare state
 - Drude Dahlerup (Professor and feminist researcher, Sweden):
Is 'State-feminism' Transformative or in Fact Counterproductive?
 - Annette Groth (MP, Die Linke, Germany and EL-fem):
The undermining of the welfare state and increasing precariousness – the consequences for women of neo-liberalism in the EU and elsewhere
 - Line Barfod (MP, The Red-Green Alliance, Denmark. Chairperson of the Left Socialist Green group in the Nordic Council and the working group on human trafficking in the Baltic Sea Parliamentary Conference):
Trafficking – women and children as the slaves of today
 - Susanne Empacher (CP of Austria and EL-fem):
Socialism and feminism
 - Drífa Snædal (Left-Green Movement, Iceland):
Women and the Crisis
 - Gona Saed (Middle East Centre for Women's Rights, London):
Women in Conflict
-

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Reception: Friday, March 5, 17 - 19 h. (5 - 7 p.m.) in Studiestræde 24 (RGA headquarters), ground floor
The conference: Saturday, March 6, 10 - 18 h. and Sunday, March 7, 9 - 12.30 h. at Borups Højskole, Frederiksholms Kanal 24, central Copenhagen.

The conference language is English – with interpretation into French and German

Participation:

landskontoret@enhedslisten.dk

There will be a dinner and social get-together on Saturday evening, March 6

EuropeanLEFT

With the financial support from the European Parliament